Spring

2022

The Christian Value This Term is: Service

Message from the Head Teacher

Today the sun is shining and Spring is definitely on the way. The daffodils are blooming around the school and there are signs of new life everywhere. We live in hope for the better times to come and pray for the suffering in our world, especially in the Ukraine, who are in our daily thoughts and prayers.

Keep looking out for each other and spreading kindness!

Warmest wishes, Miss Craig

As a school we are busy making plans to celebrate the Queen's Jubilee. In April every child in the school will be helping to make an outdoor mosaic to commemorate this special event. Our gardens will be transformed in to red, white and blue through Forest School sessions and we are planning a huge 'Street' party on the field. Parents will be kept informed closer to the dates.

World Book Day 2022

We love reading at Tittensor! We all know how important it is to promote Reading For Pleasure. This year we will be having a 'Bedtime Story' theme. Children are invited to come into school in their pyjamas. We will hear the teachers reading their favourite stories whilst indulging in a hot chocolate!
